

Ann W. Cohn, Ed.D

Dr. Ann Cohn spent her professional career in the Education field. After receiving a Bachelor's in Elementary Education and Master's in Reading Education from the University of Illinois – Champaign, she earned her Doctorate in Curriculum and Instruction from National-Louis University in Evanston, IL. She's taught at the elementary, undergraduate and graduate levels and was a tenured, Assistant Professor of Education at National-Louis University.

Currently, Ann is a Rush University Medical Center board member, a Rush University Governor and serves on the Juvenile Protective Association (JPA) board, all in Chicago. Previously, she served as president of the Glenview (IL) District 34 Education Foundation board. In addition to Champions for Learning, Ann is a member of Greater Naples Leadership and the Naples Woman's Club.

When not in Naples, Ann, and her husband Jon, travel and spend time in Chicago visiting their two sons.